I've read about this gadget since a few months and I really loved it. After a while I decided to share my find with you. If you wish to learn more about the gadget please follow these 4 simple steps: In Google the gadget looks like this: How it works Step 1 Click on "New gadget in this site" Step 2 In the form, give a name to your gadget and check the box that reads "available for all pages". Step 3 Click on "Get started" Step 4 This is the good part. Don't forget to fill in the details below. Outlook type MFC should have an entry like this. Username and password Write Gmail account username and password. Link to a web site Give a web address, for instance a gmail address. You can use this gadget to signup for the Gmail service. What's in it for you Gmail gadget is compatible with all kinds of Microsoft mail clients including Outlook, Thunderbird, Entourage, Windows Live Mail, and Windows Mail. Of course it's compatible with Gmail too. To get things working, you need a web browser, a Microsoft mail client and at least a POP3 account. Demo How to install it Copy the ZIP file you just downloaded to a folder in your computer. Extract the ZIP file and you should have a folder named "gadget". Right-click on the gadget folder and select "Show contents". You will see 4 files in there. (1) The XAP file, (2) the XML file, (3) the XUL file and (4) the manifest file. Right-click on one of them and select "Open with archive manager". You will now see a "Setup.exe" file. Run it and follow the instructions. The instructions are in the "Readme.txt" file inside the same ZIP archive you downloaded. Select a folder
